

2018 Larry Mintz Memorial Competition Secretary's Report

The 2018 LBH Classic was held on Saturday 7/14/2018 at Lost Battalion Hall in Rego Park, Queens NY. The event was divided into two sessions, one male and one female. The twenty new IWF weight categories were in effect. A total of 34 athletes lifted in the event . There were 13 females and 21 males. The youngest lifter was 12 years old and the oldest lifter was 71 years old.

All weigh-ins were conducted on time as per the updated event schedule with two referees present. Session one (all men) started on time. Session two (all women) started 40 minutes later than scheduled due to a larger than expected turnout in the first session.

The facility was in top shape throughout the event. The environmental controls kept the competition area comfortable for both athletes and spectators. Facility support staff did an excellent job keeping the entire facility clean and safe for the duration of the event. A hospitality room was made available for event volunteers and was well provisioned with food and drink.

The outstanding senior female lifter was Sade Jeannot in category W71. The outstanding senior male lifter was Michael Dewar in category M89. The outstanding junior female lifter was Sophia Fasone in category W55. The outstanding junior male lifter was Larry Mintz in category M73. The outstanding master female was Ann Thompson and the outstanding master male was Ryan Erasmus. Lost Battalion Hall won the combined team title.

A number of volunteers assisted in making the event run smoothly. A complete listing of volunteer assignments is included along with this report, as is the official results sheet. The loading crew did an outstanding job – they were both fast and precise in their work.

The event was well run and well-staffed by volunteers. We thank them for their efforts, their time and their dedication to the sport of weightlifting. Official results are posted on the USAW website.
